- Illuminated characters are easily visible in both bright and low-light conditions
- Perform single keystrokes or complex macros with six fully programmable G keys
- Create and save new macros on the fly – without leaving the game
- Windows® XP or Windows Vista™
- 2-year guarantee
- Documentation in English
- Full product support

Good intel and proper gear are the keys to victory. With the Logitech® G15 keyboard, you get both. Now you can easily discover on which server your friends are playing Battlefield 2142™, be notified when your World of Warcraft® battleground becomes available and know exactly who's talking in Ventrilo™ with the Logitech® G15 keyboard's exclusive GamePanel™ LCD. You can also create useful macros on the fly that play back with a single press of one of the six G keys. As every key features illuminated characters, with three levels of brightness, you can keep playing late into the night.
